

ATLANTA BALLET

CENTRE FOR DANCE EDUCATION

The Centre provides a non-competitive atmosphere building friendship and growth.

Centre Community Commitment

- Be an ambassador and always create welcoming atmosphere of inclusiveness.
- Our community is vast and diverse all forms of religion, politics & ideals are accepted and honored. No separate ideological groupings will be allowed within the walls of the Centre with respect to all members of the community that these walls hold.
- Always show utmost respect for each other and faculty/staff.
- Act as role models amongst yourselves and to the younger students.
- Always support one another.
- Strive for excellence.
- Work hard and do not compare yourself to others
- Take ownership and responsibility for your own individual progress.
- Be present, be positive and collaborative.
- Be proud of your work and have confidence in yourself.
- Take all corrections in a positive manner as if they were your own.
- Demonstrate empathy and concern for one another.
- Do not participate in any forms of bullying. The Centre has zero tolerance for bullying of any kind.
- Use appropriate language in all areas of the building.
- Be aware social media can be a negative tool use all forms of social media in a positive fashion.
- Respect quiet zones of the buildings.
- Do not touch other dancers' belongings; theft is not tolerated.
- Keep all areas clean and safe.
- Believe in Yourself, Be Kind and Have Fun.

We encourage you to enjoy your work, be open to corrections and find the creative potential in you.